

I wanted to share the thrilling news with you that U.S. Vice President Mike Pence will join us at this year's Basque Fry!

The 3rd Annual Basque Fry will be held on Saturday, August 26, at Corley Ranch in Gardnerville, Nevada, and this is shaping up to be our most successful and exciting event yet. In the coming weeks, we'll be announcing additional speakers, but I just couldn't wait to let you know that Vice President Pence would be there.

Tickets are going to go extremely fast, so be sure to purchase yours now at <http://www.morninginnevadapac.org>. Individual tickets are just $40 each ($55 after July 28th). Kids attend for free, and there will be special VIP packages and sponsorships available as well.

The Basque Fry has truly become the grassroots event for Nevada conservatives and Republicans, attracting residents from all 17 counties. In addition to our always-great lineup of speakers, it features live music, fun and games for the kids, and some delicious Basque barbeque. It really is a wonderful summer event that is affordable for the whole family.

And it's a genuine honor to have Vice President Pence, a bold and proven champion for conservative principles, take part in this year's event!

The Basque Fry is hosted by my friends at the Morning in Nevada PAC, an organization that supports conservative causes, candidates and organizations, and this event is their chief fundraiser, ensuring they have the resources they need to carry out their important mission.

So please, get your tickets now, and come join me, Vice President Pence, and lots of other conservative leaders for what promises to be the best Basque Fry yet! Thank you, and I'll see you at Corley Ranch.

Sincerely,

Adam Laxalt
Nevada Attorney General
