CCRW
CARSON CITY REPUBLICAN WOMEN

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings Members & Associates,

It was good to see so many of you at the annual Freedom Fest BBQ last week. Not only was it a terrific event, but we had a record-breaking attendance of over 225 guests. Our guest speaker Megan Barth, aka Reagan Babe - a nationally recognized political commentator and a syndicated radio host, was informative and energizing. Thank you, Megan for coming here from Las Vegas to be with us.

Also in attendance and saying a few words was our Nevada State Republican Party Chairman Michael McDonald. Thank you, Michael, for your show of support. Lee Elliott joined us again, sharing his beautiful voice with the singing of the National Anthem and God Bless America. He was assisted by Joseph, our regularly attending musician. Glen Eagles, as always, hosted us on their surrounding lawn, a lovely setting with some great BBQ. Last, but not least, we raised $3000 from the sale of the raffle tickets. A huge thank you to all of you that helped sell tickets and to all that assisted with the event preparations. It's only because of all of you that we are able to stage these successful endeavors!

CARING FOR AMERICA

Carolee Berglan, Chair
841-1732

Can it really be the eighth month of 2019 already? The "Freedom Fest" was a great beginning to a run towards Victory in 2020. Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make the event successful!

Caring For America continues to support: The Northern Nevada Dream Center, Paws Up For Veterans, Advocates To End Domestic Violence and CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate). You, the members of CCRW, are caring and generous with your support of the above "causes." Thank You!

Advocates To End Domestic Violence are always in need of HE laundry detergent, paper goods, "gently used" clothing for both women and children and household items such as twin bedding, blankets, and kitchen utensils. Help them if you can.

CASA helps the abused, neglected or homeless children here in Carson City. They need roll-type suitcases/duffel bags of larger backpacks and fleece throws. Each child gets to pick their own suitcase with a fleece throw and a "cuddly creature" inside for their own. Please help put a smile on the face of a child in need.

The Northern Nevada Dream Center feeds, helps clothe and encourages those in our community that need help with their daily living. They would appreciate "gently used" clothing and non-perishable items for their food pantry. Our CCRW donation for July was a check for $80.00. Thank you for caring!

Paws Up For Veterans helps Veterans find their "forever friend", a Service Dog free of charge. Ann Kinney and her husband Bob acquire the dogs, care for them, train them and match them with the right Veteran. Our CCRW July donation to help Paws Up was a check for $80.00. CCRW thanks all our Veterans for their service to this great country!

"Thanks Be" goes to our Senior Center "Kindness Thursdays" ladies: Kaye Keeton, Barbara Sweeting, Joy Trushenski and Kim Angelo. They are wonderful representatives of Republican values. They demonstrate their caring with warm smiles and a "can do" attitude.

I'd like to close with a quotable, by Josh Billings: "Common sense is the knack of seeing things as they are, and doing things as they ought to be done." Here's to more common sense!

CCRW AUGUST SPEAKER
CONGRESSMAN MARK AMODEI

US Representative Mark Amodei, a lifelong Nevadan born in Carson City, has always been a good friend of the CCRW.

He was elected to the Nevada State Assembly in 1996 where he served for two years before being elected to the Nevada Senate, serving until 2010. The following year, Mark was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives. He is currently serving the remainder of his third full term and serves as a Member of the House Appropriations Committee and its subcommittees on the Interior Legislative Branch and Financial Services and General Government.

No matter what his topic, we are sure to be informed and entertained by this native Nevada son.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR NEW MEMBERS

Name: Joann Mathis
Current Position: On Membership Committee

I joined the CCRW in May 2018. I was new to Carson City and wanted to be involved with Republican Women. I had been a member of Redding Republican Women in California.

My goals in joining CCRW are to encourage more women throughout the community to join CCRW.

I am from Northern California in a small town in the Trinity Alps called Trinity Center. We lived on 2 1/2 acres in the woods, which was beautiful but became too difficult when my husband became ill. We moved to Carson City to be closer to our son and family.

I am a retired RN.

My husband has recently passed away. I have a son and family in Pleasant Valley and a brother in Smith Valley. I also have a son and family in Knoxville, Tn. and a son in Tampa, Florida.

I am a Republican because I believe in the Constitution and conservative values. I am very concerned re: the direction our country is going. The 2020 Presidential election is going to be very decisive for this country.

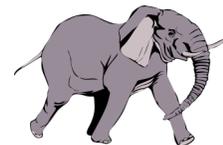

CARING FOR OUR MEMBERS

THE STORY OF BETSY ROSS

According to legend, Betsy Ross made the first American flag. Despite a lack of credible evidence to support this, she remains an icon of American history.

Betsy Ross, a fourth-generation American born in 1752 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, apprenticed with an upholsterer before irrevocably splitting with her family to marry outside the Quaker religion. She and her husband John Ross started their own upholstery business. Despite a lack of credible evidence to support it, legend holds that President George Washington requested that Betsy make the first American flag.

Betsy Ross was born Elizabeth Griscom in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on January 1, 1752. A fourth-generation American, and the great-granddaughter of a carpenter who had arrived in New Jersey in 1680 from England, Betsy was the eighth of 17 children. Like her sisters, she attended Quaker schools and learned sewing and other crafts common in her day.

After Betsy completed her schooling, her father apprenticed her to a local upholsterer, where, at age 17, she met John Ross, an Anglican. The two young apprentices quickly fell for one another, but Betsy was a Quaker, and the act of marrying outside of one's religion was strictly off-limits. To the shock of their families, Betsy and John married in 1772, and she was promptly expelled from both her family and the Friends meeting house in Philadelphia that served as a place of worship for Quakers. Eventually, the couple opened their own upholstery business, drawing on Betsy's deft needlework skills.

In 1776, at the start of the American Revolution, John was killed by a gunpowder explosion while on militia duty at the Philadelphia waterfront. Following his death, Betsy acquired his property and kept up the upholstery business, working day and night to make flags for Pennsylvania. A year later, Betsy married Joseph Ashburn, a sailor. Joseph, however, also met an unfortunate end. In 1781, the ship he was on was captured by the British and he died in prison the next year.

In 1783, Betsy married for a third and final time. The man, John Claypoole, had been in prison with her late husband Joseph Ashburn, and had met Betsy when he delivered Joseph's farewells to her. John died 34 years later, in 1817, after a long disability. Betsy Ross's life and struggles were truly impressive, perhaps even more so than the legendary flag making for which she is best known.

Betsy died on January 30, 1836, at the age of 84, in Philadelphia. The story of her making the first American flag was shared with the public by her grandson nearly 50 years after her passing. The story goes that she made the flag in June of 1776 after a visit from President George Washington, Robert Morris, and her husband's uncle, George Ross. Her grandson's recollections were published in Harper's Monthly in 1873, but today most scholars agree that it was not Betsy who made the first flag. However, Betsy was without dispute a flagmaker who, records show, was paid in 1777 by the Pennsylvania State Navy Board for making "ship's colours."

Trivia Answer

The name of Jarbidge, a northeastern Nevada town, comes from "Tshhawbitts", a mythical giant who the Shoshone people believed lived in the Jarbidge Canyon and preyed on Indians and tossed them into a basket on his back.
