MARCH 2021

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Members,

Thank you for making our last Luncheon Meeting a strong success in attendance and fundraising. Nevada National Committeeman Jim DeGraffenried, as promised, was a wealth of information about the last election in Nevada. He shone examining light upon the uncomfortable fact that Clark County's political chemistry is what leads the rest of this state. It would appear their appointed Registrar, Joe Gloria, is the new Kingmaker in Nevada. That he was not elected for this position, is deeply troubling for those of us in The Cow Counties. With so much information, Jim could have answered questions for another hour. We are lucky to have a critical thinker like DeGraffenreid representing us at the RNC.

The next time we all get together, we will have Sprung Forward into Daylight Savings Time. Personally, I don't even bother changing the clocks in my car and appliances since only 4 months of Standard Time pass so quickly. However you choose to deal with losing an hour every Spring, just keep it in mind when planning to attend our next meeting on Wednesday, March 16th. Our speaker will be our own Lori Bagwell, who happens to be the First Woman Mayor of Carson City. We are still at limited capacity, so please make your reservation soon because Lori is a very popular speaker

Our newsletter goes out to not only our members and associates but to other clubs in Northern Nevada as well as our local and state officials. CCRW appreciates the support of our sponsors and welcomes your advertising support!

We support those who are in office and those candidates running for office. To this end, this is a perfect opportunity for them to advertise in our newsletter and on our website. We also want you to think of the businesses you support and ask them if they wish to place an ad with the Carson City Republican Women.

The cost for a business card size ad per year is $60.00. (A monthly cost of just $10.00.) We also offer quarter, half, and full-page ads. Please contact me with any questions. ## CARING FOR AMERICA

Carolee Berglan, Chair
841-1732

It's March!! Will it come in like a lion or a lamb? Don't forget to look at the Upcoming Events page in the Trumpeter: Daylight Savings Time begins on March 14th, time to "spring ahead", St. Patrick's Day is on March 17th, time to wear your green, plus, other reminders.

Please feel free to stop by the Caring For America table at one of our luncheons. CCRW is supporting some important "causes" that appreciate your support. Questions are welcomed.

The Northern Nevada Dream Center feeds the needy, provides free clothing, has a DC Life Ministries program to help with addictions and other life issues, has a free workplace training and computer classes, and more. Look for their tall cylinders on the luncheon tables. In February, you donated $77.00 to their cause. Bless you so much!

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) benefits from our donations of roll-type suitcases/duffels/larger backpacks and fleece throws. Each of the above have a fleece throw and a cuddly creature inside them when donated to CASA. "Court Comfort Critters", smaller stuffed animals, are also given to the younger children who appear in court. Your donations help the needy or abused children know that someone cares. Please help when you can.

Paws Up For Veterans acquires and trains dogs to become Service Dogs for Veterans in need of that kind of assistance. Look for the red and blue glasses on each luncheon table. In February, you donated $100.00 to this most worthy "cause". Each dog is given "free" to a man or woman who has served to keep us free. Ann and Bob are indeed, giving back to their community. They thank you for your support. BOW WOW!

Advocates To End Domestic Violence helps women, men and children learn how to overcome abusive relationships. They welcome your donations of "gently used" clothing, household items and children's games and books. Smaller hygiene items are also appreciated. Please help them get a "step up" in life.

"Kindness Thursdays" at the Senior Center is still on hold. We have a wonderful team of CCRW ladies who are eager to, once again, help as needed every Thursday from 11 to 12:45.

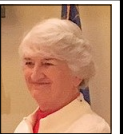

February "Thanks Be" goes out to all who donated to The Dream Center and Paws Up For Veterans and to these ladies who helped with our other causes: Marie Bensinger, Mary Burgoon and Suzie Weissman. Thank you SO much!

I'll close with a timely quote from Helen Keller: "I am thankful that in a troubled world no calamity can prevent the return of spring".

MEMBERSHIP

Membership Chair & 2nd VP Joann Mathis

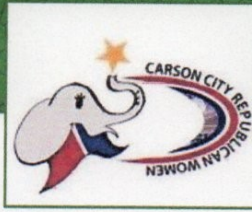

Well ladies, we are doing well! We sold out for February's luncheon and are a political voice. We continue to sign up new members and for the month of March we can have up to 100 members and guests at our luncheon. It would be wonderful to have 100 members and guests in the ballroom at Fandango! So please sign up to hear our own The Honorable Lori Bagwell. As the Mayor of Carson City, you will come away well informed.

I will have forms out again on the tables for anyone who is interested in signing up for a committee or stated interests. We already have a Legislative Committee forming after the last forms were out at the January luncheon.

We are acquiring educational booklets from the Nevada legislature that we will put out at the next meeting for anyone to learn more about the political process in Nevada. It is so important!

ST. PATRICK

Saint Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland. He was a Christian missionary credited with converting Ireland to Christianity in the AD 400s. So many legends surround his life that the truth is not easily found.

St Patrick was not actually Irish. His exact birthplace and date is not known. However, it is believed he was born around 375AD in Scotland. His parents, Calpornius & Conchessa, were Romans living in Britain in charge of the colonies. His real name is believed to be Maewyn Succat and he took on the name Patrick upon becoming a priest. As a teen he was kidnapped by pirates and sold into slavery in Ireland to herd and tend sheep on Slemish mountain, Co Antrim.

During his six-year captivity, he became fluent in the Irish language, he turned to God in prayer. He escaped after having a dream sent from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast where he would find a ship waiting to sail to Britain. He is believed to have met up with his parents in Wales before travelling to France where he became a priest and later a bishop.

Patrick was sent another dream in which the people of Ireland were calling out to him to come and walk among them once more. He was set the task of teaching Christianity to the Irish. He travelled throughout Ireland, preaching the Gospel and converting many. He and his disciples preached and converted thousands and began building churches all over the country. Patrick preached and converted all over Ireland for 40 years. The date cited for when Ireland was converted to Christianity is 432.

There is much debate over when and where he died. It is believed he died on 17 March, 460 at Saul, Downpatrick. That is why Saint Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17th. Some people suggest he was also born on 17 March.

The clans of Ireland began to bicker over who should receive the honor of having his final resting-place on their land. To avoid this sacrilegious end to his life, his friends secreted away his body to bury in a secret grave. Many believe this to be in Downpatrick, County Down, where there is a permanent memorial.

Jim Wheeler Nevada State Assemblyman—District 39

Opening the Nevada Legislature

More than 23 days have passed since Opening Day of the 81st session of the Nevada Legislature. To date, there have been 23 floor sessions in the Senate and Assembly, 58 committee meetings, and 121 bill hearings, but not a single member of the public has been allowed to come into the THEIR legislative building, or to meet in person with THEIR representatives to discuss the issues that matter most to them.

The current system enforced by legislative Democrats has made public testimony difficult at best. Members of the public can only call in to have their voices heard, and many of these calls, across every committee, have suffered from technical difficulties or have even been dropped. Policy decisions are being made that will affect every Nevadan, yet leadership in both the Assembly and the Senate have kept everyone but the mainstream media out of the People's House. Good policy cannot be created in a vacuum.

It's time for this to change -- and the Nevada Legislative Freedom Caucus stands with the bipartisan effort of many other organizations in Nevada, both left and right, in calling on legislative leaders to open the building to the public. This can be accomplished using the same type of distancing guidelines that are in place for Nevada's businesses, schools, and churches to keep people safe while allowing them to remain involved in the legislative process.

"Instead of 'virtually' doing the business of the people, we must actually do the business of the people," said Assemblyman Jim Wheeler, the Freedom Caucus' Chairman. "That means opening this building and allowing the people of Nevada to speak to their elected representatives in person."

Returning Power to the People's Branch

The Coronavirus pandemic has taught us many things about our health, our families, our work, and our priorities. Another thing that we have learned through these trying times is that we have placed entirely too much trust in the executive branch of our state government. Our system of government was built to be deliberative, and to preserve the rights and freedoms of the people through checks and balance between branches of government. In order for this system to work, each branch of government must be able to exert its authority over the actions of state government.

It is unfortunate that this system, that our founders envisioned, is thrown out whenever times get tough. The governor is rightfully afforded certain emergency powers, and has the authority to use them when necessary. However, when applied, those powers should have limitations. There should be checks and balances, and the legislature should exercise its representative authority to make sure that the actions of the executive branch are appropriate.

The unrestricted and unilateral directives that the governor has placed on Nevada's businesses, schools, families, and churches have done extensive damage and have set a dangerous precedent. For these reasons the Nevada Legislative Freedom Caucus supports Assembly Bill 93, sponsored by Assemblyman Jim Wheeler, which places a 15-day limit on the governor's emergency powers without legislative approval.

"This is not a partisan issue. Nevada has had more Republicans than Democrats in the Governor's Office," said Assemblyman Wheeler. "Our goal is to preserve the voice of the people when decisions are being made that affect their families, health, livelihood, and communities."

We ask that everyone contact their legislators and respectfully ask that AB93 be heard and vetted in committee and get a vote on the floor. We also ask that you forward this email to everyone you know who believes in the principles of our constitution and it's separation of powers and ask them to contact their legislators as well.
