A Moving Presentation Honoring USA Veterans in All Branches of the Service

Our guest speaker for the November 15 Veterans Day Luncheon will be our very own Lt Col John W. Vettel, Jr., USAF (ret). He will regale us with Vietnam-era war stories- including the Cuban Missile Crisis, the F-15 Fighter Program, and Area 51. So invite your favorite veteran and join us for a unique tale of 21 years of military service during the Cold War. Remember: All attendees (members and guests) MUST make their reservations by Friday, November 11. No exceptions!

— Jessie Vettel

PLEASE MAKE SURE TO INCLUDE THE NAME OF EVERY PERSON YOU INVITE, BOTH VETERANS AND NON-MEMBER GUESTS WHO MIGHT ACCOMPANY THEM when making your reservations!

President's Message

This is a very busy time of the year for our club. It is also an opportunity to invite non-members to our activities, such as the Pancake Breakfast and our November Veterans Day celebration luncheon. Please take time to encourage prospective new members. All of you are a sales force to be reckoned with! Talk to people and share your enthusiasm for conservative Republican values.

In November, our annual Veterans Day celebration is very well attended. However, last year many people had not made reservations (especially for their guests) by the deadline (the previous Friday before noon), Fandango had to scramble to set up more tables, and we ran low on food. WE ASSURED FANDANGO THIS WOULD NOT HAPPEN AGAIN! This year we will be unable to seat people without reservations! Since this event is our way of saying thank you to the men and women who have served our country, it is especially important that it goes smoothly.

The boutique sale table at our October meeting was bustling with sales of fresh baked goods, jewelry by Jolene, and books. Continue to watch for new items each month as part of our club's fundraising efforts, and thanks for your support.

With November 8th, Election Day, we pray for a big win for our country. Please encourage your relatives, friends, and neighbors to vote in this important midterm election. If someone needs a ride to the polls, offer them one. This is a critical turning point for our country!

An Anonymous Quote: I want to say something about our Armed Services. When all the slick-pants politicians have finished their work, all the speeches are finished in the House and the Senate, and all the ultimatums have been issued and rejected, there comes a time when a soldier with a gun stands to defend his country. In the final analysis, the most important thing we have are the fighting men in this country because it will be them and no one else who will see that our freedoms are perpetuated for our children and their children.

Please be sure to put December 13th on your calendars. Our annual Installation Dinner will be at 6 p.m. at Casino Fandango. An elegant meal is planned, and Fandango decorates the room beautifully. We'll be singing Christmas carols and we need you to be on hand to show your support to officers being sworn in for 2023. You'll also be there to hear the long-awaited unveiling announcement of who was chosen for 2022's Women of the Year award. It is sure to be a fun evening and we look forward to seeing you there.

The social hour is 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. with a no-host bar, and dinner is served at 6:45 p.m. Please be sure to call or text Lori Bagwell at 775-220-3646 no later than December 7 at noon. Cash, check, or credit card accepted, $55 per person.

— President Joann

There is still time to nominate your choice for CCRW's Woman of the Year Award

ALL CCRW MEMBERS MAY NOMINATE.

The CCRW Woman of the Year Award recognizes the outstanding achievement of one of our members. The Woman of the Year committee comprises the last five Women of the Year. Susan Ruch (2021), Joann Mathis (2020); Nancy Dallas (2019); Alicia Eidel (2018); Marti Cockell (2017); and Carolee Berglan (2016). The only persons you cannot nominate are the current president, Joann Mathis, or any of the past five recipients. You may, however, select previous winners not mentioned above, as many of them are still actively working on behalf of our Club and the Republican Party.

Criteria

The Woman selected for this honor must fulfill as many of these attributes as possible. Please consider them before submitting your nomination.

- Support CCRW and attend meetings
- Display a positive attitude
- Support the objectives of CCRW
- Be relied upon completing her CCRW assignments
- Support the Republican Party and its ideals
- Support the Republican Party through direct participation
- Participate in getting Republicans elected to office

Applications for Woman of the Year are available at the November meeting and our website: CCRWClub.com

1st VP/Programs Message

We need to get every Republican Candidate Elected. Gubernatorial Candidate Joey Gilbert recently said, "Get Steve Sisolak out! I dislike Steve Sisolak more than I could probably put into words and more than my ambitions. I got in this fight to save this state from someone I believe has been the worst governor the state has ever seen."

We all need to understand the importance of electing Joe Lombardo; he has the VETO POWER. The Legislative Session is right around the corner in 2023. You can believe Steve Sisolak will rubber stamp every piece of legislation the Marxist Socialist Democrats pass and send to Sisolak's desk. If you don't like your gas prices, food prices, and open borders, you'd better Vote Right.

—Susan Ruch

2nd V.P. Membership Message

TRUMPETER. Blow Your Horn for the RED WAVE Rolling Across NEVADA and the USA!

I have been volunteering for Adam Laxalt and Joe Lombardo all around the local area of Nevada and have felt the energy and enthusiasm of the people. Just a few weeks ago, I was able to see and talk to so many wonderful people at the "Trump Save America Rally."

There were thousands of people, some traveling from other states waiting to see and listen to our 45th President, Donald J. Trump. When he came on stage, he introduced all our local candidates and endorsed each one. They all were able to speak, which was a plus because, for most people, that was their first time seeing and listening to the candidates. He then spoke directly to the people asking that we stay Strong, United, and Vote, Vote Republican to Save America. As the Rally ended, you could feel the love President Donald J. Trump has for the people and the United States of America.

Let's stand beside Trump to support our local candidates VOTE! VOTE BY NOVEMBER 8th — SAVE AMERICA! KEEP THE RED WAVE ROLLING!

God Bless America, See You at the Polls,

—Beverly Collins

Highlights from the Trump Rally

1. Turn out November 8 to end what he called the radical Democratic madness now running the country.
2. You're going to send Joe Lombardo to the Governor's Mansion and you're going to send Adam Laxalt to the Senate and we're going to end the crazy.
3. It's best to vote on election day. It's much harder for them to cheat that way.
4. The time to stand up to this growing tyranny is right now.
Whether Trump runs again will become clear in the near future. He stated his administration gave Americans the largest tax cuts in history while Biden has created the worst inflation in 50 years and called on the audience to help deliver an historic victory for the GOP to stop the "radical" Democrats.

November is here! Remember Election Day, November 8, Veteran's Day, November 11, and Thanksgiving Day, November 24th. May we ALL have reasons to be thankful for this month: an honest election and a time for remembrance of and thankfulness for our military men and women, past and present, and a feeling of gratitude for family and friends.

Our caring CCRW members donated $134 to Paws Up For Veterans at our October luncheon. Ann and Bob do their best to help veterans needing a trained forever friend. The dog is given, free of charge, to a deserving military man or woman. Please thank each Veteran for our freedom as Paws Up For Veterans provides a veteran with a chance at living more independently.

Thank you, CCRW, for also donating $84 to The Northern Nevada Dream Center. This organization helps our local community in SO many ways! We will again support them by "adopting" a Dream Center Bag and filling it with food—or writing a check to help the Dream Center do the shopping. We hope to do 35 bags this year. Please sign up to "fill a Dream Bag" at our November luncheon. The bags and sign-up will be on our Caring For America table at our luncheon. We want to help "Make Spirits Bright" for needy families in our community. Thank you in advance for helping!

Also, in December, we will be helping Advocates To End Domestic Violence by filling a "Wish List" of wished-for items for the residents of their shelter. A list will be available in November, and I hope you can help the women and children feel our caring and compassion by participating. Call me if you have questions.

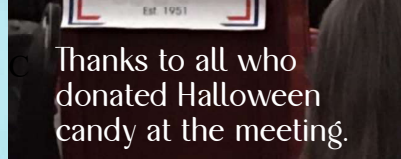

"Thanks Be" goes out to the following ladies who gave "Cuddly Creatures" in October to CASA: Marie Bensinger and Mike Gutter. As always, Thank You!

I'd like to close with this timely quotable by Gloria Gaither: "There is something in every season, in every day, to celebrate with Thanksgiving."

Remember:

"This is a "History Defining" Election. —VOTE!

Sharp Rise in Marijuana-Related Psychosis: American Board of Pain Medicine President

Cannabis products are produced to have extremely high percentages of THC

As drug legalization groups and the cannabis industry lobby to legalize cannabis across the United States, with initiatives to legalize marijuana on the November ballot in five more states, many experts warn this will only increase the physical and mental harm from the unregulated, high-potency cannabis.

President of the American Board of Pain Medicine and a vice president of the International Academy on the Science and Impacts of Cannabis, Dr. Ken Finn, said high potency cannabis use is being linked to poisonings in young children, as well as psychosis and schizophrenia in an increasing number of regular users.

"A lot of my colleagues that work in psychiatry and emergency medicine are seeing a sharp rise in marijuana-related psychosis," Finn told NTD's The Nation Speaks in an Oct. 1 interview.

Be Ready to Shop at the November Meeting!

Please consider choosing a gift for at least one person on your Christmas list at a CCRW meeting. Not only will she receive a special one-of-a-kind present, but you'll be helping to support the club. Check out our fabulous new Boutique Table at all regular monthly meetings. Jolene features some unique gift ideas each month (many handmade), including; bracelets, earrings, and necklaces. See her beautiful Forever Flowers, which can even be custom-made to your specifications. Members are also sharing home-baked goodies for sale to benefit the club. There is always a surprise, so do make time to take a peek. And remember, our Book Nook is available at bargain prices on gently used books by well-known authors.

PLEASE share your shots taken at CCRW and other

Republican meetings and events.
