President's Message

A warm welcome and thank you to all members and guests who attended our January luncheon. With all that pretty white stuff coming down, we were unsure how many people would attend. We were pleasantly surprised to have good turnout.

Tony Grady, Air Force Test Pilot (retired) and recent Nevada Lt. Gov candidate, was a phenomenal speaker. His reading of a column written by Victor Davis Hansen (one of my favorite columnists) was very well received.

TONY GRADY, AIR FORCE RET.

The Woman of the Year Award was presented to Pat Wentworth, our 2022 past Treasurer (who served 3-½ years) and has earned a rest! Her "adoring" husband Kirk notified guests to be there to witness Pat being surprised by the award, and she was!

I am delighted to welcome our new treasurer Linda Denton and our new secretary Barbara Wickman. Thank you, ladies, for joining CCRW and stepping up to serve on our executive board.

On July 21, the Nevada Federation of Republican Women had its annual Leadership Training Winter Workshop and luncheon at Valley Christian Fellowship in Minden. It was a vital and well-done program put on by the Regents Committee to educate our members in leadership. Thank to everyone for your hard work and planning and for braving the weather to attend.

Quote of the Day: "Happiness is a gift, and the trick is not to expect it but to delight in it when it comes."

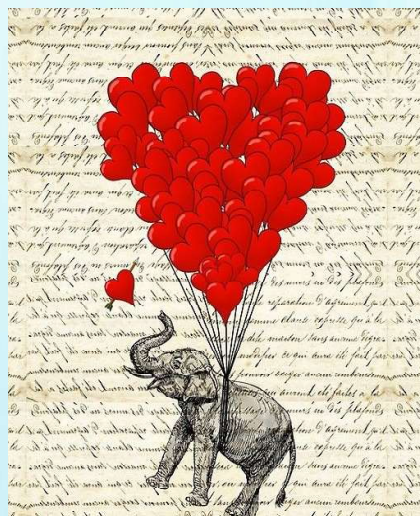

See you in March! You won't want to miss any meetings as our 1st VP Susan Ruch always has outstanding speakers!

President Joann

2nd V.P. Membership Message

Happy Valentines Day!

Give your "Special Valentine" a gift of belonging to the Best Republican Club of Northern Nevada. Present them with an Associate membership in the CCRW. It's the perfect gift for the person who thinks they have everything.

Happy Presidents Day

The month of February gives you several days to stop and appreciate presidents, ones born in February and many born in other months. Take the time to reflect and remember what they have done for our nation and how their years as president influenced where we are today in our government.

Inauguration Governor Joe Lombardo

In January, I was fortunate to attend the Inauguration and Inauguration Ball for our Republican Governor, Joe Lombardo. I have included a few photos for you to enjoy. One is of him taking the oath to work for the people of Nevada, a prayer to give him strength, and at the ball, he and his wife's first dance as Governor and First Lady. (SEE BEVERLY'S PHOTOS ON NEXT PAGE.)

Membership

Thank you to all who have renewed your membership and to Kitty Sloan for becoming a new member. We also have new associates Kathryn Kelly and the president of SNRW, Natalie S. Yanish.

Enjoy your Valentine, and prayers for our president.

—Beverly Collins

Beverly's Governor's Inauguration Photos

In appreciation of her work on the Adam Laxalt Campaign our 2nd V.P. was invited to the Governor's Inauguration Ball. She took these exclusive photos for us. Thank you, Beverly Collins!

Joe Lombardo Officially Becomes Nevada's 31st Governor

Nevada's Republican Gov. Joe Lombardo called for unity at his inauguration ceremony on Tuesday while still pushing for conservative ideals such as school choice and repealing some recent criminal justice reforms that he called "soft on crime."

In front of just over 700 people at the Carson City Community Center, statewide officials took their oaths of office, a pastor led the audience in prayer and five former governors sat behind Lombardo as he gave his first speech in office. That included Democrat Steve Sisolak, the incumbent whom Lombardo beat in one of the closest gubernatorial contests nationwide.

Lombardo said working together will be the "central covenant" of his administration.

CCRW Welcomes Two New Executive Board Members

Linda Denton, 2023 Club Treasurer

I grew up in Marin County, California. South Lake Tahoe was our second home, as we had a cabin there. I started skiing at four years old. After college, I moved up to South Lake Tahoe. I took a break before going into banking and ran cocktails at Harvey's then married in 1995 and moved to Gardnerville.

I am a proud mom of twin boys attending the University of Reno, Nevada right now. My husband passed in 2008, which left me a widow.

I worked for UsBancorp Investments for 32 years and am now retired. While at Gardnerville, I was with DCRW where I served a term as Club President. I moved to Carson a year ago.

Baraba Wickman, 2023 Recording Secretary

Barbara Wickman is a relative newcomer to Carson City Republican Woman. Moving down the mountain from Incline Village to Dayton, Nevada, after semi-retiring, Barbara can now attend regular meetings and volunteer to fill positions where needed. She loves living in the Carson Valley while enjoying all the natural beauty, the wild horses, playing golf, bowling, and engaging with Toastmasters.

Barbara's background is a sales executive, having two successful careers; her first was in the Commercial Office Interiors industry in San Diego, California. Then moving to a completely different industry in 1998, she pioneered a new concept—digital marketing witnessing all the changes from tile ads to Search Engine Marketing and social media. She still freelances in the digital marketing industry, helping businesses grow their digital footprint.

Barbara is passionate about politics and current events. She doesn't like seeing where the country is headed and wants to actively participate in MAKING AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!

Review of this year's NvFRW Leadership Training Winter Workshop

This year's Leadership Training was a great success! On an icy January 21st morning, more than seventy Republican women club members braved the freezing weather to make it to Minden for the annual NvFRW event. Many even arrived early and enjoyed the complimentary continental breakfast. A big thank you goes to all the terrific gals from DCRW and sister Douglas County club, SNRW for helping set up.

Valley Christian Fellowship in Minden was our gracious host. Pastor Leo Kruger warmly welcomed us and gave the invocation. The church's entire volunteer staff was more than accommodating in setting up the tables and chairs, complete with tablecloths. They run a finely-tuned commercial kitchen, and attendees were delighted with the delicious soups, salad, and pineapple cake they prepared for dessert.

The array of speakers provided lots of helpful information to take back to our respective clubs. Keynote speaker, Matthew Hurtt provided a lively presentation, sharing many valuable ideas in a most entertaining manner.

As always, it's stimulating to get a group of like-minded conservatives together to share perspectives and become familiar with the faces of names we've heard in the organization. Sharing camaraderie is definitely an incentive for attending these meetings.

Congratulations to NvFRW President Caroline Smith, Maxine Rodowic, Northern Director, and the Executive Committee for successfully putting the event together.

January 21st CCRW Meeting' Guest Speaker Tony Grady, Air Force (retired)

Let it Snow!
Plenty of sunshine at our January meeting!

Carolee Berglan, Chair
775-841-1732

Can it be 2023? Let's hope it is a good year for our club, state, and country. God Bless America. At our January Luncheon, I thought our speaker was great. I do hope that Mr. Grady stays involved with politics here in Nevada.

Caring For America will again support the following causes: Advocates To End Domestic Violence, The Northern Nevada Dream Center, and Paws Up For Veterans. At our January Luncheon, CCRW donated $105 to Paws Up For Veterans and $87 to the Northern Nevada Dream Center. THANK YOU!

The Dream Center accomplishes a lot to improve things in our community, and Ann and Bob Kinney of Paws Up for Veterans enhance the lives of veterans by giving them trained service dogs at no cost. Please contribute to help these organizations continue their important work. Learn more about them by checking out your Caring for America table at every luncheon.

CCRW has members who volunteer at the Carson City Senior Center every Thursday at lunchtime. We help serve, bus trays, answer questions and bring a smile to those eating lunch. Please ask me about helping. We work in sets of two or three, and you can choose the Thursday you would like to help from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. I'd love to have you join Team Kindness. You've got my number.

"Thanks Be" goes out to ALL of you who donated to our causes and Marie Bensinger, my "Cuddly Creature" lady. She amazes me with her long-time generosity and support. Since Valentine's Day comes in February, let's all try and wear red to the luncheon on Tuesday, February 21. It may not be a Red Wave, but we will look very patriotic!

I'd like to close with this quotable by Duguet: "The smallest good deed is better than the grandest good intention."

— Carolee
