The Heritage Foundation's and Heritage Action's mission is to promote human flourishing by restoring self-governance to the American people. As the everyday American's outpost in Washington, D.C., Heritage promotes and advocates for public policies based on the principles of limited government, economic freedom, a robust civil society, and a strong national defense. In recent years, those principles have been under attack by the leftist ideologues running America's elite institutions.

Heritage's place in this fight is primarily in the arena of ideas, public policy, and government accountability. As conservatives, our weapons are not the fleeting trends of the moment, but the proven, permanent fundamentals of human flourishing: faith, family, freedom, and nation.

Through a rigorous analysis of public policy, opinion, and events, Heritage has identified seven challenges where our efforts are most needed and where we can do the most good.

Nathan Duell is a State Director for Heritage Action for America, the grass-roots sister organization to The Heritage Foundation. Nathan joined Heritage Action in 2016, and in his role he works with concerned citizens and state legislators to advance conservative policy solutions.

Prior to joining Heritage Action, Nathan graduated from Arizona State University and had a brief stint working in finance. Nathan lives in Glendale, Arizona with his wife and two sons.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Dear CCRW Board and Club members,

Thank you to all who attended our annual Freedom Fest on Thursday July 25th at Glen Eagles Restaurant. This is always a well-attended FUN CCRW event and Glen Eagles is always a gracious sponsor. The hamburger, hot dog BBQ was delicious, the music was great, and the camaraderie with all our fellow Republicans is always a bonus!

Thank you to the CCRW volunteers who decorated the tables, managed to fasten the tablecloths with our active Carson City breezes and assisted with the clean up process after the event. These are the unsung heroes at our events.

Please put August 20th on your calendars for our next CCRW luncheon at Nashville Social Club! The speaker is Nathan Duell State Director for Heritage Foundation.

J. D. Vance has written a book entitled Hill-billy Elegy and it is terrific! A recommended read to give us all insight into his life!!

This is not a boring summer politically! Have a great one!

Kim Fiegehen
CCRW President

FIRST VP VICE CHAIR BARBARA WICKMAN

July was a month that filled me with pride as both an American and a Nevadan. We witnessed significant moments, such as the attempt on Donald Trump's life and the selection of JD Vance as the Vice Presidential nominee. These events have strengthened our resolve and unity.

Our group thoroughly enjoyed the annual Freedom Fest, which saw enthusiastic participation from many members and dignitaries. It was especially wonderful to see Tony and Donna Grady at the event. A special thank you goes out to Kim and Eric Fiegehen for their gracious hosting of the evening.

With President Biden's decision not to seek re-election, the 2024 election landscape is shifting, with Kamala Harris emerging as the likely nominee. It is crucial for us to come together and focus on our goal of ensuring Donald Trump's election.

Let us unite and stay committed to our cause to make America Great Again as we move forward.

Barbara Wickman
CCRW 1st VP

Thank you Garrett Tamagni for arranging such a wonderful tour at the State Capitol and Nevada State Museum. Everyone who attended had such a wonderful time. Our tour guide Dan educated us with so much of Nevada's rich history.

The Trumpeter

Freedom Fest is always a fun event for members and families to enjoy a wonderful social time together. PK O'Neill was an excellent auctioneer with closing the deal on the rifle. Kim Fiegehen looks great with President Trum , the BoozeBarrow was won to a happy person who bought two $20 raffle tickets . Thank you Tony and Donna Grady for attending.

13 Things Trump Is Now Allowed To Do After Supreme Court Immunity Ruling

As everyone now knows, the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling to grant presidents immunity for "official acts" has given Donald Trump unlimited power to do literally anything he wants with zero consequences whatsoever.

After serious consultation with legal experts, The Babylon Bee has discovered the following list of things that Trump can now do with complete impunity:

1. Leave the toilet seat up:

Feminists in particular are reportedly outraged over this.

The Trumpeter

The Babylon Bee

2. Leave his tray table down and keep his seat in the reclined position when the plane is making its final descent:

Long thought to be the one rule everyone must follow, Trump is apparently exempt.

3. Claim the front seat without calling "Shotgun":

No man has ever known such power.

4. Leave his shopping cart in the parking lot without returning it to the corral:

Matt Walsh won't approve, but there's nothing he can do about it.

5. Go back for seconds before everyone else has finished with their firsts:

He'll also now get two scoops of ice cream while everyone else has to settle for one.

6. Drive in the carpool lane by himself:

He'll also be allowed to make rolling stops at stop signs and merge without giving a little "thank you" wave to the guy behind him.

7. Put the milk carton back in the fridge even though it only has a tiny splash of milk left in it:

Yes, the person using the milk after him will suffer for it, but the law is the law.

8. Go swimming without waiting 30 minutes after eating:

Not even stomach cramps can compete with presidential immunity.

9. Double-dip his chips:

Being immune to prosecution means everyone else has to be comfortable with your germs.

10. Ignore the height limit at the Chick-fil-A Playplace:

And no more of that "taking turns going down the slide" silliness when you're the president.

11. Rebroadcast a baseball game without the express written consent of Major League Baseball: Constitutionally, he'll also be allowed to share his Netflix account and password with as many people as he wants.

The Trumpeter

The Babylon Bee

12. Walk into Costco without showing a membership card:

There is now legal precedent for any president to save big on a two-gallon jug of ranch dressing without having a membership.

13. Read comments on Babylon Bee articles without being a premium subscriber:

Just kidding... The Donald has had a subscription for years now.

Trump is unstoppable now. God help us all.

CARING FOR AMERICA

Carolee Berglan, Chair,

775-841-1732

Where did July go? The tour of the State Capitol was great. Our tour guide was excellent. Others say that the tour of the Nevada State Museum went well also. Nashville Social Club did a good job with the box lunches. It was also nice to enjoy the beauty of the Capitol grounds.

Since there was not a regular monthly luncheon, Paws Up For Veterans and The Northern Nevada Dream Center will both receive a check for $60.00 to help them with what they do for our Veterans and Community. The "collection" glasses will again be on the luncheon tables at our August luncheon on Tuesday, August 20th, at the Nashville Social Club. Your donations to these "two" causes are greatly appreciated. Thank you for caring!

In closing, I will include a quote by one of our Founding Fathers, Alexander Hamilton: If it be asked, what is the most sacred duty and the greatest source of our security in a Republic, the answer would be," an inviolable respect for the Constitution and the Laws."

November will be here before we know it. This coming election is so important for the future direction of our country. Get involved, stay informed on the issues and - -Please, PRAY, THINK, and VOTE.
