PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

FIRST VP VICE CHAIR BARBARA WICKMAN

Dear CCRW Board and Club Members;

Thank you to everyone who attended our April membership meeting. Our speaker PK O'Neill, Assemblyman, gave a presentation of many aspects and duties of his office which was very informative.

During this election season it is very important to support our Republican candidates at their meet and greets. Information is available for these candidates at Republican Headquarters in Carson City which is open M-F 10-4. You may also check the Carson City Republican Party website.

Congratulations to our new boutique that Janice Baldwin, Joann Mathis, and Pat Wentworth have started at our monthly luncheons. Baked goods, jewelry, books, CCRW membership shirts, and much more! A special thank you to Laura Fitz and Jessie Vettel for their special donations to enhance everyone's experience.

A SPECIAL WARNING TO ALL MEMBERS: An email has been received by a few members asking for a monetary donation in the name of a current CCRW member!! This is known as phishing and should be deleted and ignored!! DO NOT RESPOND!! Welcome to computer land, Ladies!!

See you in May!

Kim Fiegehen
CCRW President

Volunteering for politicians can be a meaningful way to contribute to causes and candidates you believe in. Here are some ways you can get involved:

Campaign Volunteering: Join a political campaign as a volunteer to help with various tasks such as canvassing door-to-door, making phone calls to potential voters, distributing campaign literature, or organizing events.

Social Media Support: Offer your skills in social media management to help politicians or their campaigns maintain an active and engaging online presence. This could involve creating content, scheduling posts, responding to messages, and monitoring online conversations.

Event Coordination: Assist with planning and organizing campaign events, rallies, town hall meetings, fundraisers, or volunteer appreciation events.

Research and Policy Analysis: Volunteer to conduct research or analyze policies on behalf of a politician or political campaign. This could involve gathering information on key issues, drafting policy briefs, or preparing talking points for debates and interviews.

Graphic Design and Marketing: If you have skills in graphic design, marketing, or advertising, you can offer your expertise to create campaign materials such as flyers, posters, banners, digital ads, or promotional videos.

The Trumpeter

FIRST VP VICE CHAIR BARBARA WICKMAN

The room was packed with CCRW members, associates and guests to learn more about the Assembly Republican Caucus of Nevada presented by PK O'Neill .

Data Entry and Administration: Help with administrative tasks such as data entry, organizing databases of donors or volunteers, or managing scheduling and logistics for campaign activities.

Translation Services: If you are fluent in multiple languages, offer your services as a translator to help communicate with diverse communities or translate campaign materials into different languages.

Legal Support: If you have a background in law or legal studies, volunteer to provide legal research, advice, or assistance with compliance and regulatory matters related to political campaigns.

Fundraising Assistance: Assist with fundraising efforts by reaching out to potential donors, organizing fundraising events, or helping to develop fundraising strategies and campaigns.

Get Out the Vote (GOTV) Efforts: Volunteer to help with voter registration drives, transportation to polling places on election day, or other efforts to encourage voter turnout.

When volunteering for politicians or political campaigns, it's important to familiarize yourself with relevant laws and regulations regarding campaign finance, disclosure, and ethical conduct. Additionally, be sure to align yourself with candidates and causes that reflect your values and beliefs.

PK O'Neill shared a very informative presentation - here are some slides from the presentation.

CAUCUS MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission

The Assembly Republican Caucus of Nevada is dedicated to advancing and enacting sound policy for the betterment of every single Nevadan. Republicans in Nevada are the party that stands for something, not the party that is only against something.

We believe in the rights, liberties, and freedoms bestowed upon our citizens and protected by our constitution. We are FOR positive policies that ensure liberty, opportunity, and growth for all and against potentially destructive policies that hurt Nevada families.

1. We are PRO Education and FOR Educational Reform
2. We are PRO People and stand FOR Prosperity
3. We exist to PROTECT individual rights and freedoms

CAUCUS POLICY PRIORITIES

Working with Gov. Lombardo

Policy Matrix

1. Education and Workforce
2. Economic Growth and Business Development
3. Health and Wellness
4. Public Safety and Infrastructure
5. Government Support Services
6. Rural and Natural Resources

Letter from Caroline Smith NFRW Campaign and Elections Committee State Coordinator

Hello Club Presidents,

Thank you to those who attended the NvFRW meetings on April 12th and 13th, and to those who couldn't make it, we missed you. Here's a brief update regarding the NFRW Strike Force, discussed during our NFRW April 14th, 2024, committee Zoom meeting. I'll provide more detailed information after the May 3rd and 4th GOP State Convention being held in Lake Tahoe.

As previously mentioned, the "Strike Force" is a nationwide program being hosted by the NFRW, and Nevada is one of the battle-born states we're focusing on. Our goal is to win NV, and we can achieve it with your help by mobilizing the masses, not just a few. To date, we're discussing with the GOP, Turning Point Action, and Trump's Campaign to join with us.

I'm honored to serve as a member of the NFRW Campaign and Elections Committee and as the NV State Coordinator. In this capacity, I'll be working closely with our NvFRW State President, Mary Beganyi, to organize the 2024 Summer Strike Force hosted by the NFRW.

Important Update from our NFRW Campaign and Elections Committee.

"The battle lines have been drawn".

As we gear up for the crucial 2024 elections, it's time to rally our forces. While I know many of you are already deeply involved, we must collectively step up during a specific period this summer.

Every NvFRW and NFRW member MUST contribute to GET OUR THE VOTE (GOTV):

- 1. Volunteer for Strike Forces to Knock on Doors
- 2. Make Phone Calls
- 3. Conduct Voter Registration Drives in Republican Friendly areas
- 4. Chase Absentee/Mail-in Ballots
- 5. Poll Watchers/Clerks/Managers

The Trumpeter

Please enlist your members in the NFRW Army - we're in this together for victory! Let's keep our eyes on the prize: winning up and down the ballot on November 5, 2024

KEY DEADLINE: NFRW has set May 31, 2024, as the deadline for NV to collectively recruit at least 100 statewide volunteers for the NV Strike Force. By having each club submit a minimum of 10 volunteers we would easily exceed our goal of 100 volunteers. Please compile the list and send it to both Mary and me in one consolidated submission.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment. Let's make history!

Best regards,
Caroline Smith

He may be crass, but this man fights Evan Sayet Published 6:01 p.m. ET July 25, 2017 Updated 6:01 p.m. ET July 25, 2017

My leftist friends (as well as many ardent #NeverTrumpers) constantly ask me if I'm not bothered by Donald Trump's lack of decorum. They ask if I don't think his tweets are "beneath the dignity of the office." Here's my answer: There could not have been a man of more quiet dignity than George W. Bush as he suffered the outrageous lies and politically motivated hatreds that undermined his presidency. Could there be another human being on this earth who so desperately prized "collegiality" as John McCain? Has there been a nicer human being ever than Mitt Romney? And the results were always the same. This is because, while we were playing by the rules of dignity, collegiality and propriety, the left has been, for the past 60 years, engaged in a knife fight where the only rules are those of Saul Alinsky and the Chicago mob. I don't find anything "dignified," "collegial" or "proper" about lying, as Obama did, about what went down on the streets of Ferguson, Mo., or lying about the deaths of four Americans in Benghazi and imprisoning an innocent filmmaker to cover your tracks. I don't see anything "statesmanlike" in weaponizing the Internal Revenue Service to destroy your political opponents and stifle any dissent. But while the left has been taking a knife to anyone who stands in its way, the right has continued to act with dignity, collegiality and propriety. With Donald Trump, this all has come to an end. Trump is America's first wartime president in the Culture War. During wartime, things like "dignity" and "collegiality" simply aren't the most essential qualities one looks for in their warriors. Ulysses Grant was a drinker whose behavior in peacetime might well have seen him drummed out of the Army for conduct unbecoming.

The Trumpeter

Had Abraham Lincoln applied the peacetime rules of propriety and booted Grant, the Democrats might well still be holding their slaves today. Lincoln rightly recognized that, explaining to Grant's critics: "I cannot spare this man. He fights." Trump is fighting. And not only is he fighting, he's defeating the left using its own tactics. Saul Alinsky's "Rules for Radicals" is a book so essential to the liberals' war against America that it was the playbook for the entire Obama administration and the subject of Hillary Clinton's senior thesis. Trump's tweets may seem rash and unconsidered but, in reality, he is doing exactly what Alinsky suggested his followers do. First, Trump isolated CNN. He made it personal. Then, just as Alinsky suggests, he employed ridicule, which Alinsky described as "the most powerful weapon of all." He has left CNN and its friends with two options: report the news accurately, or ratchet up the propaganda. The problem is that, if they were to start honestly reporting the news, that would be the end of the Democratic Party they serve. It is nothing but the incessant use of fake news (i.e., propaganda) that keeps the left alive. Imagine, for example, if CNN et al. had honestly and accurately conveyed the evils of the Obama administration's weaponizing of the IRS to against its political opponents or his running of guns to the Mexican cartels or the truth about the murder of Ambassador Christopher Stevens and the Obama administration's cover-up. This leaves them no other option but to ratchet up the fake news, conjuring up the next "nothing burger" and devoting 24 hours a day to hysterical rants about how it's "worse than Nixon." As they become more hysterical, they become more obvious. Each new effort only makes it more clear to any objective observer that Trump is and always has been right about the fake news media. Do I wish we lived in a time when our president could be "collegial" and "dignified" and "proper"? Of course I do. These aren't those times. This is war. So, say anything you want about this president. I get it. He can be vulgar, he can be crude, he can be undignified at times. I don't care. I can't spare this man. He fights.
